Rotarians Stay Overtime To Hear Mrs. Brackett

So interested were the Rotarians, gathered yesterday noon at the Middlesex Sportsman's Association for their regular meeting, in the story told by Mrs. Irving Brackett of the bombing of Pearl Harbor, that they stayed far over their usual time of dispersal to ask her questions and listen eagerly to her answers.

Mrs. Brackett, whose husband is an army lieutenant stationed at Wheeler Field, told how she was awakened early that Sunday morning by planes flying so low that she could see the emblem of the Rising Sun on the wings and even the men that were operating them. She told of the terrible injuries inflicted on the men and of the many killed. These were sights she said, that she would never forget and she was thankful that her baby was too young to remember them.

At the time of the attack there were many planes on the landing field without gasoline and guns. Without protection, all but seventeen were destroyed. Just prior to the arrival of the Japs there were no scout planes in the air.

The board of directors of the Chamber have appointed Mr. Bliss (Continued on Page 8)

Obituary

THOMAS V. DOWDELL

The funeral of Thomas Vincent Dowdell of 26 Freeman street was held Tuesday morning with a solemn high mass of requiem in St. Agnes' church. The celebrant of the mass was a cousin of Mr. Dowdell, Rev. Walter J. Leach, D. D., of the chancery office at Brighton. The deacon was Father Donelan and the sub-deacon, Father Linehan, both curates of St. Agnes' church. Acting as pall bearers were two lifelong friends, John J. Skelly and John P. O'Hara of Medford; two representatives of the Railway Mail Association, Matthew Casey of Wakefield and John J. Cronin of Watertown, and two representatives of Peabody Council, K. of C., J. Howard Barry and Ex-Rep. John A. Jones. Delegations from the Railway Mail Association, the Peabody K. of C. and its Auxiliary, and the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters attended the funeral. The great number of floral tributes showed the love in which Mr. Dowdell was held. Burial was in Holyhood cemetery, Brookline.

Mr. Dowdell, who passed away last Friday, had been in the United States railway mail service for more than thirty years. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Anna Fitzgerald Dowdell; four children—Mrs. Edward Hanlon of Wollaston, Thomas P. Dowdell of 26 Freeman street,

VIBRATOR MAKES DAMAGED AUTOS AS GOOD AS NEW

The noise of a boiler factory or a sheet steel factory is nothing compared to that in the shop of Hanson and Tilton at 25 Sunnyside avenue, when their special vibrator is at work. But the results of the vibrator's work make any auto owner glad to endure the noise. This unusual machine, made by the Water-viet Tool Company of Albany, N. Y., hammers out every dent, leaving the mudguard or body as smooth as it was before that collision.

That isn't the whole story. Hanson and Tilton have also a color mixer with a special indicator so that the paint with which they cover the damaged parts matches perfectly the original color. No one could guess that the car had suffered any damage.

The members of this firm of magic workers are Adler M. Hanson and Arvid F. Tilton. Mr. Hanson has had fourteen years experience in repairing autos, part of the time in Boston with the Metropolitan Auto Body Company. He is an air raid warden and a member of the Arlington Vikings. His home is at 119 Rhinecliff street.

Mr. Tilton, who is also an Arlington resident, his home being at 15 Fayette street, has had eighteen years' experience in painting automobiles. Before coming to Arlington he was for eleven years connected with the Metropolitan Auto Body Company as well as with other firms.

The cement block shop at the end of Sunnyside avenue is easy to reach and there is plenty of parking space. The telephone number is Arlington 3644.

GUNN — REPETTI

St. James' church was the scene Sunday afternoon of the wedding of Miss Louise Marcella Repetti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Repetti of 5 Pine court, and Francis Aloysius Gunn, son of Mrs. Mary Gunn of East Boston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Maurice J. O'Connor, the pastor, and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Pauline A. Repetti, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, while Joseph Gunn of East Boston served as best man for his brother.

The bride wore a beige wool suit, with a rose hat and a corsage of white orchids, while her sister was in postman's blue wool with a matching blue hat and a corsage of orchids.

After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. Gunn and his bride will live in Cambridge.

John School, Boston, '38, and the groom of Brown University, '39. They have motored south for their wedding trip and will live in Providence until the groom is called to the United States service.

Student Prince Returns To Shubert Theatre

It is perhaps fitting that "The Student Prince" which opened its present tour in Boston on September the 29th, should close it in the same city, which means that this ever popular musical is returning here on February 2nd at the Shubert Theatre for a two weeks' engagement, its gala farewell appearance in this city.

The excellent business which "The Student Prince" enjoyed in Boston presaged the business which has been enjoyed on the entire tour which included Hartford, Providence, New Haven, two weeks through Pennsylvania and Virginia, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Washington, Toronto, Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland.

In sending "The Student Prince" back to Boston, the Messrs. Shubert are announcing a "Farewell Tour", so it is possible that this most tuneful of all operettas will not be seen or heard again in Boston. Undoubtedly this will be a blow to many theatregoers whose season is not complete if they do not see "The Student Prince" at least once.

Lloyd Harris has joined the company as Dr. Engel since it was seen here in September and James Donnelly has replaced William Kent as Lutz, as Mr. Kent returned to New York and radio commitments. Barbara Scully still sings Kathie, Robert Davis is seen in the title role, and others are Detmar Poppen, Nina Varela, Joanne Tree, Jay Presson, Alex Alexander and William Castle and of course the famous male singing chorus one of the features of this outstanding musical.

Marriage

HUTTON — CUTTER

At an informal wedding at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dana Cutter, Miss Virginia Bartlett Cutter on Wednesday afternoon of last week became the bride of Richard Baldwin Hutton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay P. Hutton of 211 North Main street, Southington, Conn. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives of the couple by Rev. Clifford O. Simpson of Springfield, Vt., former minister of the Park Avenue Congregational church. A reception followed.

Attending the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was her sister, Miss Alice Emily Cutter, as maid of honor. Little Juanita Anne Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith of 18 Parker street, was the ring-bearer. William Wyman Crosby of Providence acted as best man. The bride is a graduate of Arlington High School and the Chamber-

To Observe Anniversary Of Lowell Mason's Birth

Sunday at 10:45, the service at the Orthodox Congregational church will be of special interest. The music and sermon, as well as the hymns to be sung will all be in recognition of the 150th anniversary of the birth of Lowell Mason, who has been often called "the father of modern American Church Music". Lowell Mason was uncle of Dr. Edward B. Mason, minister of the Orthodox Congregational church from 1882 to 1889. He also was once a teacher of music in West Cambridge schools. His great service to the cause of musical education in America and his composition of certain of our best known hymns, have made him one of the great figures in musical history.

—Miss Miriam Hall of 33 Park avenue has been elected secretary of the senior class at Boston University's College of Practical Arts and Letters.

LEGION AUXILIARY NOTES

Auxiliary Red Cross Work

The Red Cross program of the Arlington American Legion Auxiliary is in charge of the chairman, Mrs. Lois Meserve. Since July 26, 1941, she has held regular sewing classes at her home each Thursday, consisting of members of the Auxiliary, among whom are Mrs. Josephine Rich, president; Mrs. Carrie Scribner, Mrs. Phyllis Jacques, Mrs. M. Morrison, Mrs. M. Consoles, Mrs. M. Williams and several others. At the present time the group has to their credit approximately 300 hours of sewing, and several of the members have taken home knitting. Mrs. Hazel Patterson of Peter Tufts road, also a member of the unit, has charge of another group but this group does not consist only of auxiliary members.

"Keep Her Knitting"

During the latter part of December, Mrs. Marion Keefe had the pleasure of going to Lakewood, R. I., to visit Mrs. Roy Dinsmore, better known to her Arlington friends as "Helen Bennett", a member of the Arlington American Legion Auxiliary. Although, since her marriage several years ago, she has resided in Rhode Island, she is still a member of the unit here in Arlington. Mrs. Keefe was very happy to bring back the following report of the Red Cross sewing and knitting, accomplished by Mrs. Dinsmore. Since April 18, 1941, through December 30, she has finished a total of 181 articles for the Red Cross in Rhode Island, totaling over 750 hours.

Mrs. Dinsmore is a charter member of the auxiliary and also a past president of Arlington Unit. The Auxiliary members are indeed proud of her great work, and take as a slogan, "Keep Her Knitting."

Bridge Party a Success

At the American Legion bridge and whist party held at the Legion Memorial Hall under the chairmanship of Mrs. Phyllis Jacques, first prize in whist was won by Mrs. Chastek of Oxford street; first prize in bridge by E. J. McCaffrey of West Medford; second in bridge, by Mrs. Irene Neaves, also of Oxford street. A boiled dinner was won by Mrs. Jessie Fitzgerald, and the door prize, a 9-piece water set, was also won by Mr. McCaffrey.

BRADSHAW-FRIENDLY UNION

The Bradshaw-Friendly Union will meet next Monday, February 2, at 2:30 p. m., in the Orthodox Congregational church. Rev. George A. Butters will be the speaker of the afternoon. Tea will be served by the Harmony group.

Neighbor Night at Grange

Arlington Grange held a Neighbor Night at its last meeting, Lexington, Somerville and Allston Granges being their guests. One of the speakers was Master Katherine Brown McCarron, Master of the Past Masters Association. After the regular business meeting, Arlington Grange held an old fashioned pie social, which was a huge success. The ways and means committee, with a rainbow as their background, and run under groups of the month, was an original idea of the masters, each with a goal ahead.

Arlington Grange, under the guidance of the Master, Florence M. Bruce, is looking forward to a very successful year. Applications for membership are rolling in.

The lecturer, Emilie Saunders of Cambridge, has planned for the year of 1942 a banner year of entertainment.

FRANCIS GOULD RELIEF CORPS

The officers-elect of Francis Gould Woman's Relief Corps 43, were installed last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Amanda Wheeler, past department president, and past national officer, as follows: Mrs. Ida Lutz, president; Mrs. Olive Tottle, senior vice-president; Mrs. Mary Day, junior vice-president; Mrs. Minnie S. Barry, treasurer; Mrs. Josephine Williamson, secretary; Mrs. Emily Saunders, chaplain; Mrs. Katharine Whelton, conductor; Mrs. Gertrude M. Kelly, guard; Mrs. Ida Bowman, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Williamson, press correspondent; Mrs. Jeanett Kimball, Mrs. Anna MacPherson, Mrs. Emma Morrison and Miss Fanny Barnes, color bearers.

The installation was followed by a turkey supper and whist party.

Christian Service Society

Holds Enjoyable Meeting

A most enjoyable meeting was held by the Women's Society for Christian Service in the vestry of Calvary Methodist church last Thursday evening.

The program opened with the group saluting the flag, then singing "America". Devotions followed with Mrs. Carrie Hendricks in charge.

Reports were heard from the various circle representatives in the church, as well as the Women's Society officers. Two resignations were handed in: Mrs. Carl Nelson, secretary of literature and publications, and Mrs. Ralph Kinney, corresponding secretary.

The new officers were installed by the president, Mrs. Howard McGovern. They are: secretary of local church activities, Mrs. Carl Nelson; secretary of literature and publications, Mrs. George Hill; secretary of missionary education, Mrs. John W. Hess; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jessie Augustus.

After this, Mrs. George Butters introduced Harold P. Williams, who came in connection with the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and gave the women a very interesting and instructive talk on the amazing work done by that organization. He presented, also, a motion picture, in color, and wired with sound. This told the vivid and dramatic story of Dora Hutton, a child who was cruelly mistreated, until the society stepped in and straightened everything out. It was truly a fine example of the work of an organization we are fortunate to have.

Before the meeting closed, Mrs. Howard McGovern presented Mrs. Willis Munroe, the Women's Society's out-going president, with a beautiful old-fashioned bouquet, decorated very uniquely with streamers to which were attached many one-dollar bills. It was a gift to her from the women for her splendid work as their president.

Refreshments were then served by women from the Volunteer Circle.

Historical Society Enjoys Double Program

An unusually large gathering attended the Tuesday evening meeting of the Arlington Historical Society in the parlors of the First Parish church. The program was in two parts—both very enjoyable.

The first was devoted to the observance of the Lowell Mason sesquicentennial. The president of the society, Rev. Laurence L. Barber, gave an enlightening resume, showing exhaustive study, of the life and position in the musical world of Lowell Mason. Then a group of singers under the direction of Mrs. Harold B. Wood sang two of his compositions—"Jerusalem My Glorious Home" and "From Greenland's Icy Mountains", with a modern patriotic lyric. The singers, besides Mrs. Wood, were Mrs. Ezekiel Pratt, Mrs. Roscoe Patten, Miss Gratia Eagleson, Parker Wood, Dr. David R. Kennedy and Paul Vonckx. They were accompanied by Miss Daisy Swadkins.

For the second part Curtis Pinkham, with Mrs. Pinkham operating the machine, gave an illustrated lecture on Colonial Williamsburg. The lovely colored pictures of streets, inns, house, gardens and people were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Pinkham when they spent two weeks in Williamsburg.

Arthur Lansing Winner In Cub Quiz Program

The regular monthly meeting of Cub Pack 86, which is sponsored by the Peirce School Parent-Teacher Association, was held last Friday evening at the Peirce School, with over 50 Cubs and 25 parents in attendance.

The Cubs assembled in the gymnasium at 7:30 for a game period under direction of Cubmaster Edward D. Okerlund, while at the same time a parents' meeting was conducted in the auditorium by Pack Committee Chairman Paul F. Wilson. At 8 o'clock the boys marched into the auditorium. After the Salute to the Flag, a program of Cub songs was enjoyed, with Mrs. Carl Sternfeld at the piano.

The main feature of the program was then presented—a quiz, with Mrs. Paul Wilson, complete with cap and gown, as master of ceremonies. The judges were Paul F. Wilson, Charles F. Hickey and Edward D. Okerlund. Eight boys, representing the various dens, competed, being selected by elimination quiz contests held in the various dens the past month. Some 40 questions were asked the youthful board of experts, at the end of which Arthur Lansing was declared the winner by the judges. He was presented a 25-cent defense stamp with an album as a prize.

An announcement that the pack had collected over $40 worth of waste paper for national defense and was still going strong was greeted with cheers.

Committeeman Charles F. Hickey then presented the following Cubs with achievement badges, the boys' parents taking part in the ceremony: Theodore Okerlund, Wolf badge; Donald Cullen, Gold Wolf arrow; Arthur Lansing, Gold Wolf arrow; Bear badge, Gold Bear arrow; Vaughan Kasabian, Silver Wolf arrow; Donald Ryan, Bear badge; Gold and Silver Bear arrows and Lion badge; Colin Ramsay, Bear badge, Gold Bear arrow; Ronald Wilson, Silver Wolf arrow.

The singing of "God Bless America" completed the program. The theme for next month's meeting will be entitled "Radio Sounds Night."

Kiwanis Korner

Living up to a policy instituted by himself, to have weekly reports from the various committees, President "Curt" Foye at the last meeting called upon the chairman of the Kiwanis Committee of Vocational Guidance, Forest Litchfield, who outlined plans for a most interesting and active year. Probably outstanding among these are the plans by Forest and the members of his committee to actually visit the various schools and talk personally with the students in the classes and attempt to bring an insight into the usefulness of their work as it applies to their daily lives.

This meeting also brought to light a movement that is being sponsored by the Arlington Kiwanis Club to make a complete check-up in the schools with the purpose of finding out if some financial aid can be given to those underprivileged children who cannot afford to buy daily milk, etc. This move will be carried further to the extent of contacting the Welfare Department relative to providing proper Vitamin products to undernourished children.

The nucleus of a plan was brought before the club, voted upon and passed to sponsor an Essay Contest for the school children on the subject, "What Makes a Good American?" Details of this project will be forthcoming.

All committees of Kiwanis will individually confer and submit written reports to Secretary Maurice Hatch concerning their activities and accomplishments by February first.

The speaker of the day was Immediate Past Lieut. Gov. George Whoriskey, of the 5th District, member of the Cambridge Club. George gave a very inspiring outline of "Kiwanis Objectives" in an interesting and original manner.

Kiwanis will always stand firm, and serve the Nation with Goodwill and Tolerance.

MENOTOMY CHAPTER, D. A. R.

During the business meeting of Menotomy Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution last week, the following delegates and alternates were elected to represent the Chapter at the Continental Congress in Washington the week of the 19th of April: Mrs. Platin, regent and Miss Ednah A. Warren. Alternates are: Mrs. James B. Carr, Miss Caroline D. Higgins, Mrs. Terry Shuman, and Mrs. G. Edwin Holt.

"Conservation" was the theme of the afternoon, stressing its need on the human side, Mrs. Frederick P. Young, of Winchester, a chapter member, outlined the work at the Veterans' Hospital in Bedford, to which she has given her time.

Mrs. Walter J. Vaughn of 164 Park avenue gave a short history of the American Red Cross and reported the splendid work done by the Arlington Chapter.

The guest speaker was the State Chairman of Conservation, Mrs. William P. Burnham, who outlined the many phases of the work of this committee. The planting of trees to replace those cut or destroyed; the preservation of laurel and holly, which are Christmas greens; prevention of the burning over land which tends to destroy the valuable part of the soil; the necessity of keeping physically fit with adequate diet; and the question of the wisdom of gardening when fertilizers and garden tools may be difficult to get.

Post and Christmas cards are sent to certain schools and hospitals; cancelled United States postage stamps aid the work in the hospital for crippled children in London, England. Since last July, 4,000 pounds have been sent.

The state society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has furnished a hostess room at Fort Devens and placed a suitably inscribed marker upon the door.

The local chapter participated in the giving of money and gifts to the service men at Christmas and New Year.

English Gardens Lecture

Topic at Woman's Club

"English Inns and Gardens" is the title of the illustrated lecture to be given at the meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club in Robbins Memorial Town Hall next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Through his education at Harvard and Oxford, England and over one-half million miles of travel through nearly every country of the six continents, as well as his intimate associations with all nationalities, he has developed a cosmopolitan point of view and a fund of stories with plentiful humor. Many of these pictures may never be duplicated because of the devastating bombing of picturesque England.

Guests of the afternoon are the members of Arlington Garden Club. Sponsoring the afternoon's entertainment is the Art committee, of which Mrs. Leroy G. Shaw is chairman. Members are: Mrs. LeRoy Bezanon, Mrs. Roy B. Crosby, Mrs. Harold J. Cue, Mrs. Frederick O. Johnson, Mrs. Harold A. Raymond, Mrs. Torsten H. Reenstierna, Mrs. Edward B. Schwamb, Mrs. Harold A. AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

A large number of members of Post 39 of the American Legion, with their feminine guests, attended the banquet tendered to the national commander at the Hotel Statler last Saturday evening. State Commander Joseph Peterson of the V. F. W. was not only a guest at the banquet, but also a guest of Post 39, that had quarters at the hotel.

GIRL SCOUTING IS DEFENSE

"Girl Scouting Is Defense" is the cover title of the report of Arlington Girl Scout activities for the past year issued by Commissioner Russell. After reading it we agree that Girl Scouting here in Arlington is a strong defense.

1941, says the report, has been an eventful year for Girl Scouts. They have been learning to understand the new problems created by the national emergency and have been given a better understanding of and training for democratic citizenship. By this training five hundred and sixty-six Arlington girls benefited.

One hundred and two adult leaders helped to build citizens capable of withstanding the onslaught on morale which comes with war. They have trained the girls in the ways of democracy, shown them worthwhile ways to serve their country and helped them to help themselves.

The Scouts are learning to be physically fit, to lead recreational activities, to use food thriftily, to conserve resources, to cook out of doors, to release adults for other work, to have a hobby, to find and utilize materials at hand, to take care of children, to take care of old people and shut-ins, to be kind to new comers, to organize groups for work or play, to find their way about in and out of town, and to know simple first aid.

These things will be useful in everyday life as well as in an emergency. This learning includes, above all, "the basic attitudes of tolerance, self-reliance, thrift and service, the attitudes that motivate citizens in a democracy."

UNITED EFFORT

Arlington has always been a town of clubs. People have joined together for all sorts of purposes. There are clubs for the young, the middle-aged and the old. There are clubs for study, for charity work, for play. There are church clubs, school clubs, military clubs. The members of these organizations have learned by experience that by united effort much can be accomplished that individuals cannot achieve.

Now these organizations are playing a part not only in community life but in the life of the nation. They are holding special meetings to do Red Cross work or are devoting their regular meetings to it. Some of them have collected books for the men in the service and have turned them over to the library.

More of them have purchased defense bonds with the funds they have on hand and have voted to devote still further funds to this purpose. This is not only patriotic but wise. The money paid for these bonds will buy munitions to keep this country one in which such organizations as these can continue to function and to hold free discussions. In addition, the bonds provide a safe investment for their funds against the time when they may need money more than they do now.

Their money is safe and is working for them.

DEFENSE AGAINST THE WAR OF NERVES

The recent announcement coming from the oldest nursing organization in Arlington, The Ring School of Psychiatric Nursing, is an added bulwark to the safety and defense of our citizens. It is defense against the war of nerves.

We are all aware of the Axis plan of panic and destruction of morale. That is the deadly weapon which has been used against all of Hitler's adversaries. Here in Arlington we have in our midst, qualified specialists to prepare us against this technique. The opportunity has been offered young women of our town to take this well planned course which will not only educate against the war neurosis, but prepare them for the post war period and for a profession to make them more useful citizens.

Those who cooperate in this effort by taking this course, which has been approved and recommended by the Civilian Defense Committee, will help to set a new high in standards for community defense.

It is really a group of Santa Clauses that he is looking for, says Chairman Chamberlain of the Committee on Public Safety. He isn't going to put them in red suits and glue long beards to their chins. He just wants them in their old clothes ready to shovel out sand to Arlington householders on Sunday.

This is an opportunity to have just the sort of fun Santa Claus has at Christmas—giving something to someone. Instead of going out alone in the dark as Santa does, you go out in the sunshine with your friends and neighbors—a jolly crew.

So appealing did the project seem to Chairman Chamberlain that he thought the Board of Public Works would have to turn away applicants. Instead, there aren't enough so more are urged to offer their services.

It's a half day's sport in a season when you can't play golf or tennis. And this is the only opportunity you will have to do it.

Fifty Years Ago This Week

It was a very cold night but a lot of people turned out to consider the subject of a better water supply last Tuesday evening. The result of the meeting was the same old story—appointment of a committee. Will it amount to anything?

Mr. A. J. Tillson received the first $10 bill of our bank's new currency, for which he generously paid 25 cents premium. The $10 and $20 bills are now ready for distribution and are a handsome piece of currency.

Miss Ethel Wellington inaugurated on Monday evening what promises to be a very successful class made up of ladies in Swedish gymnastics. Miss Wellington appeared in the regulation ladies gymnasium suit, made of dark blue flannel, and presented a unique and novel figure as she went through the various exercises.

One of the most enjoyable and amusing entertainments given for some time took place Wednesday evening, in Union Hall, at Arlington Heights, under the auspices of Circle Lodge, A. O. U. W. The curtain rung up at eight o'clock, disclosing a negro cabin amid cotton fields and Mr. W. E. Lloyd, personating the old colored "Uncle", introduced the minstrels. The other gentlemen taking part, all gotten up with capital effect as negroes, were Messrs. Ernest Hesseltine, Geo. Averill, Herbert Pattee, Andrew Turner, J. F. Stone and Charles Caswell. The "star" of the evening may be said to be Miss Nellie Robbins, whose get-up and performance was irresistibly funny.

Another citizen has announced his candidacy for the office of Selectman. He is Edward T. Ryan of Gardner street. We believe there are now four seeking the one place to be filled on the Board of Selectmen. Besides Mr. Ryan there is Thomas J. Donnelly, the present incumbent, who will seek re-election; Alexander A. Jardine, of the Heights, and Augustus F. Crowley of Medford street.

The seventeen couples who enjoyed a series of dancing parties last winter in Odd Fellows Hall, Associates Building, have already had one party which was given in G. A. R. Hall. This was managed by the Eben Dewings, the Arthur Nortons, the Frank Walkers, the Goshan H. Davises and the William E. Hardys. Another party is to be given this (Friday) evening. This will be given by the Earl Ryders, Loren Marshes, Robert Begiens, Guy Sangers, Thomas R. Winchells.

Dr. Barbara Ring opened her home, known as the "White House", Monday afternoon of this week, to members of the Study Club and its friends, for a bridge party to raise funds to go toward the sum already given by the club for the Ann Hutchinson statue, the work of Cyrus E. Dallin.

On Saturday evening, January 20, a jolly time was participated in by a number of young people, at the home of Mr. John Kelly, Farrington road. The occasion was a surprise party tendered to Mr. John Kelly, Jr. The affair was in charge of Miss Olive Kelly and Miss Amoro Beaudreau and during the evening Mr. Kelly was presented with a set of handsome military brushes.

Stories Groundless

January 21, 1942

To the Editor:

The Boston Metropolitan Chapter, American Red Cross, is very much disturbed about the insidious rumours that sweaters and other garments, made by volunteers, for distribution to the men of our armed forces, are being sold by Red Cross.

We have run down many of these stories and found them to be utterly groundless. Nevertheless, much harm is being done to Red Cross. Surely its fine record of sixty years of humanitarian work must be protected from the subtle attacks of this sort of propaganda.

Knitted garments made by Chapter volunteers are distributed to Army and Navy personnel, through the Red Cross Field Directors at Charlestown Navy Yard, Chelsea Naval Hospital, Camp Edwards and Fort Devens upon application of commanding officers. There is no charge whatever for these garments. They are given to the soldiers and sailors absolutely free.

If any one has proof that any of our articles, all of which carry a Red Cross label, or services which are given free of charge, are being sold, will he please communicate with the Boston Metropolitan Chapter and allow us to conduct an investigation.

We ask the help of your readers in this matter.

Would Form Committee To Administer Infantile Paralysis Contributions

33 Berkeley Street
Arlington, Mass.
January 25, 1942

To the Editor:

Despite the war and other anxieties which beset us in these trying times, I believe there is one matter which we should not forget, and that is the fight against infantile paralysis. No home, no community, is safe from the prowling invasion of this enemy of our children. In the past three years infantile paralysis has stepped over more thresholds than ever before. In that time, more than 26,000 new names have been added to the list of those who were touched, twisted—and could not straighten. You and I know what that means in terms of terror, heartache and blasted hope. Because this is a free nation, (Continued on Page 7)

NEWS IN BRIEF

The British admit new reverses in Libya.

Australia, becoming alarmed, demands a closer participation in the conduct of the war and more help from Britain and the United States, as the Japs land on New Guinea, New Britain, and the Solomon Islands.

The Japs swarm over a 4,000 mile sea, island and mainland front.

The first major sea clash since Pearl Harbor results in success for the Allies in the Macassar Straits, and runs up the Jap losses to 146 ships since December 7th.

Dutch bombers and subs, American bombers, cruisers and destroyers sink 10 Japanese transports, a destroyer and damage 17 other vessels—all in one day.

Bombers, usually accompanied by fighting planes, do their own fighting to the dismay of the Japs.

The Russians advance toward Smolensk, Hitler's winter quarters. The German army—in spite of Red successes, still holds nine-tenths of its conquests in Russia.

The Russian troops use fast propeller-driven sleds powered by plane engines, to transport their ski troops.

The "Yanks are here," cry the Irish, as the first American Expeditionary Force, several thousand strong, lands in a Northern Irish port.

King George and Queen Elizabeth leave Buckingham Palace, the residence of Britain's royal rulers for more than one hundred years, to occupy a modest flat in London. Shortage of servants, because of military service and a desire for a less pretentious home, are given as the reasons for the change.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur receives the plaudets of the nation on his 62nd birthday. Representative John W. McCormack of Massachusetts in the House calls him "a great military leader and brilliant strategist—one of the outstanding Americans of all time." Douglas MacArthur! There he stands—fighting against great odds—gaining valuable time, even the Japs pay him great tribute.

The Roberts report frustrates the isolationists' arguments—(if equipment had been sent, Pearl Harbor, this would not have happened). Says the report: "The forces available . . . were adequate to frustrate a surprise air attack or to mitigate its effectiveness." The accused, Admiral Kimmel and General Short—both demoted—may be taking the rap for Washington, thinks David Lawrence.

United States Attorney Brandon begins an investigation of Bay State grocers who refuse to sell sugar except to persons buying a dollar's worth of groceries—restraint of trade—fine, $5,000, a year's imprisonment—or both.

A Royal Air Force pilot spans the Atlantic in 8 hours, 10 minutes, cutting the record by 13 minutes.

Dr. Walter Damrosch, dean of American orchestra conductors, celebrates his eightieth birthday tomorrow (Friday). He expects to conduct his new opera, "The Opera Cloak," (libretto written by his daughter) this Fall.

To conserve 736,282,000 kilowatt hours of electricity annually, we go on daylight saving time February 9th.

District-Attorney Robert F. Bradford, three years in office, turns back more than $75,000 in unexpended appropriations for his department.

For the third time in eighty years, the Massachusetts Legislature convenes in a special war convocation. Fifteen bills await action. The Governor urges speedy passage of a 15-point $7,000,000 program for emergency purposes.

Representatives of 2,000,000 American women of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in session at Washington, ask Mr. Henderson if he contemplates converting reserve stocks of whiskey into industrial alcohol needed for munitions. He replies he is opposed to using the defense program to carry out controversial reforms and adds some Americans prefer liquor to sugar—too true.

President Roosevelt calls a little cabinet of labor leaders (6) to consult with the White House on labor's part in the war. No representative of a union belonging to the Lewis bloc is included.

The navy hints again that the German submarines in the Atlantic are having a "rough time."

Bible selections will include the following passage from I Peter 5: 6, 7: "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."

One of the passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, included in the Lesson-Sermon reads as follows: "The habitual struggle to be always good is unceasing prayer. Its motives are made manifest in the blessings they bring,—blessings which, even if not acknowledged in audible words, attest our worthiness to be partakers of Love" (p. 4).

Business Girls to Hold Valentine Record Hop

The newly organized Arlington Business Girls' Club will hold its first social function on Friday, February 13.

It will be a Valentine Record Hop, with selections by the well-known bands. The music is supplied by a specially installed General Electric record machine.

The Fitz Edwards Bungalow, Winter Hill, Somerville, where it will be held, has had many successful affairs, supplied with this type of music. The club, therefore, is giving the Arlingtonians a chance to come and hear for themselves, and to prove that they are not superstitious, even though the party is being held on Friday, the 13th.

Dancing from 8 to 12.

CITIZENS RESPOND

TO FUND CHALLENGE

Fund carries the four-in-one responsibility of meeting four separate challenges: (1) the year-round needs of the 215 Community Fund hospitals, health and social service agencies; (2) the war-time needs of the American Red Cross at the front; (3) the call of the USO for funds to provide recreation for men in service wherever they may be; (4) the local needs of the Soldiers and Sailors Committee to extend hospitalities to service men stationed in and about Boston.

The United War Fund gives the people of Greater Boston the chance to show their men in service that those at home can also serve, as Fund leaders point out. To the common query—"What shall I give?"—the answer is, "We must give as we never gave before. Never will giving gain so much!"

Arthur W. Sampson, Arlington campaign chairman, urges the budget plan of giving with payments due quarterly, weekly, or as desired. This deferred payment plan will enable many to follow their own dictates of all-out generosity; it is also one of the most effective ways of meeting the increased local quota. Through the cooperation of all Arlington banks, payments on pledges may be made at the Menotomy Trust Company, the Arlington Cooperative Bank, the Arlington National Bank and the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank, which in addition to its main office, has branches at Arlington Heights and in East Arlington.

Referring to Community Fund services, Mr. Sampson cited these percentages which show the proportion of people living in the Greater Boston area, outside the City of Boston, who were helped by Community Fund Agencies last year:

Sixty-six per cent of the patients in Community Fund hospitals; 76 per cent of the mothers and infants in maternity homes; 50 per cent of the patients in convalescent homes; 59 per cent of the people in homes for the aged; 50 per cent of the children served by child-placing agencies; 54 per cent of the young people enrolled in youth agencies.

Local campaign workers plan to attend some of the Dutch treat report luncheons continuing on January 30, February 4, 6 and 9 at the Boston City Club.

IT MAY COME TRUE

By EVELYN TERENCE

The flag that flew on high that day
Shall never fall but always stay
Above the rest in time of peace
And always where our boys shall sleep.

They broke their pact of friendship true
The shots that fell were much too true
And men that died that Sunday morn,
Shall be avenged from dawn to dawn.

We won't give up, we never will
Till every Jap has had his fill;
We'll blast them from the earth and sky,
Till none shall fight and none shall fly.

I'm just a girl who loves her land;
Who wishes she could take her stand
Beside the boys in all they do,
Who knows, some day, it may come true.

for the start of this new school will be announced in this newspaper soon. All civilian defense volunteer meetings begin promptly at 7:30 p. m.

to give a surprise birthday party for their own president, Mrs. Knight. Mr. Helstrom, their treasurer, presented her with a very lovely bag and Mrs. Milne came forward with a beautiful cake. Although it was 22 days after her birthday, the party was carefully planned to make the occasion a double surprise to everyone present.

An outstanding program was presented, including the charming and talented soloist, Miss Alta May Libby, accompanied by Mrs. Libby. Dr. Frank E. Ornstein played two delightful violin solos. He is a practicing physician in Arlington. Miss Anna Louise Fillebrown read two very fitting pieces. One of her own compositions, honoring Mrs. Tebbets, was especially good.

Mrs. McMasters and her daughter, Miss Jane McMasters, were guests of honor. The hostesses, wearing white tea aprons and colorful paper caps, served refreshments during the reception and social period.

The next regular meeting of the local group will be held on February 12, when the new officers will be installed and a penny sale will be conducted.

Another member who was greatly missed was Lucy Erickson, who is at the Osteopathic Hospital because of a fractured hip.

PATRIOTIC RALLY SELLS $3,595.35 IN DEFENSE BONDS

of the colors by the sergeant at arms. The first speaker, Joseph E. Dente, was introduced by Venerable Salvatore Cannistraro. Mr. Dente said that the purchase of bonds was not a sacrifice but a privilege. However, no sacrifice would be too great to stop the untold suffering brought about by the unscrupulous and dastardly attack on Pearl Harbor. He closed with a tribute to the flag.

Selectman Ernest W. Davis brought the town's greetings and urged the purchase of bonds and stamps as a defense measure. Daniel Doherty of Woburn, former national commander of the Legion, and chairman of the National Defense Savings Committee, pointed out that peace cannot be maintained without national defense. We must not again sink our own battleships. Our trouble he said was not so much fear of the aggressors as apathy and indifference. The government does not want us, he concluded, to take money out of the savings bank and invest it in defense bonds, but to buy them from our current earnings.

Anthony Di Cicco, assistant district attorney of Middlesex County, who is chairman of the Defense Savings Committee of the Sons of Italy, said he was proud of the real Italy but not of the Italy of the puppet, Mussolini, and spoke of an anticipated pledge-signing campaign. Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the local Defense Savings Committee, further emphasized the importance of the campaign. The retiring of the colors closed the meeting.

At tables on either side of the stage, taking pledges and money for bonds were Edward P. Clark of the Defense Savings Committee, Paul Cameron, William Bennett, Frank Lo Presti and his daughter, Miss Stella Lo Presti.
